Staying Busy...

The kids have so been busy with school this week, we thought we would give them a break from that to help us plan some fun! Each of the kids were asked for their input to create games and activities to play after their schoolwork time.

Here is what was said:

Kids: "Grandpa" – kids have to go around Grandpa so he doesn't tag them.

Staff: Why is it a grandpa? Is he slow?

Kids: No, grandpa can run pretty fast.

Staff: Oh, fun!

Kids: "Parkour Tag" - It is where you have to climb up things and you run and climb and you just have fun.

Staff: What do people do when they are doing Parkour?

Kids: They run and climb up something and hide up there; or you can keep running and jump off something, like a step.

Staff: Awesome!

Staff: What is The Taste Test Challenge?

Kids: People bring a blindfold from their house and they have the staff bring food. Of course, they have to have gloves on. Then people put on the blindfolds and the staff give each person a type of food. They all have to guess and get a treat if they are right.

Staff: What kind of food would you bring for kids to guess?

Kids: Something out of the ordinary, like a plantain, or a dragon fruit, flavored raisins, or salted covered mangos, that's what my dad eats.

Staff: Nice!
