Our Stories

Here's what happened last week

The kids learned some Portuguese! We followed along to a language video that covered different topics like colors, shapes, and numbers, as well as action verbs, weather terms, and household items. The kids would repeat the Portuguese words from the video as I would translate the words into English. After each section, they got tested on Portuguese words they could remember and the English translation. They were very eager to tell me what they learned and even want to continue this language club and learn some more. For next time around, they want to learn

“We should have had this snow weeks ago!” said Penny.

At least we got to have a Spring Break Snowman!
