

Older Kid leads the way in Public Speaking.

Hats off to Elliot, self-proclaimed “Older Kid Facilitator” for, Beanie Boo and You and You. Elliot shows up every time to assist the club with confidence, grace, style, patience, and humor. He sets a good example, uniquely validating every child’s public speaking experience, and encouraging the youngest participants when they are having a difficult time finding their voice!

Elliot’s veteran support and positive attitude has made staff facilitation of Beanie Boo & You & You practically obsolete, often quoting the staff’s words verbatim before the staff has a chance to say them... “Remember that every Boo has a voice, just like every person has a voice, and all voices are equally important and deserve our attention and respect” (Elliot)

Way to be a leader Elliot!! Beanie Boo Club is grateful for you. As you happily give your time and energy to Beanie Boo Club, we salute you and all the amazing things you do to help our CC community!

Who Runs the World? Kids!

Table Top Games Club provides a place to play intricate games. Casey brings in a variety of logic-based table top games which has inspired a group to create their own game. Ethan, Jackson and Lorenzo have been developing a game in this club called Unicorns. Other games played in Tabletop Games Club include Unmatched, Magic the Gathering Arena, and Dragon Rampant. All kids are welcome to join and maybe find an unknown land through the realm of Table Top Games Club!

A Hair Braiding Club opened up in the Quiet Area! These kids broke out a full salon, braiding anyone's hair! Their clients were happy as they walked away with their new braids!

Grayson was showing Juniper how to make her own comic book! She saw him making one and when she had a little trouble with the paneling he helped her outline it and use different shapes to add some dimension!
