Wolf Pack Spotlight: Meet Adeline & Bella

This week, we're shining the spotlight on two special North Star Wolves who just happen to be siblings! Get to know these two as we learn about their favorite things, their unique personalities, and what makes each of them shine. While they may share the same family, they each bring their own special spark to our North Star community! Let's get to know our sibling duo!

“How do you know each other?”

We're sisters!

“What do you like about each other?”

Uh, that we're kind. That we are creative.

What's your favorite hobby?

I like riding my bike. & I like hanging out with my friends and water polo.

What's your favorite food?

Mine is spaghetti and hers is pizza. Pizza Hut pizza!

What would you say would be absolutely necessary as a topping on Pizza?

Cheese! Without cheese, no pizza.

Is there anything else you'd like to share about yourself or each other?

Well, I would like to say that my sister is very creative, kind, and careful.

Spider Spoon Showdown

Our kids put their balance, coordination, and teamwork to the test during a Spider Spoon Challenge! The goal was simple: keep their “spider” balanced on a spoon without letting it fall while completing a variety of tricky challenges. First, the kids had to hop on one foot from the starting line all the way to the finish line while carefully keeping their spider in place. Then the challenge got even more interesting! Kids paired up and worked together to make it to the finish line while one partner completed the challenge with their eyes closed. Communication and teamwork were key! One proud moment came when Maya excitedly said, “I finally did it on my own!” after successfully completing one of the challenges.

Nolan Takes The Lead: Volcano Lab

Nolan took the lead as our junior scientist, guiding the others through each step of creating a volcano. Kids then experimented with different amounts of vinegar and baking soda, making predictions and observing how the reactions changed. They also added their own colors for some creative eruptions! As she watched her colorful reaction, Hannah excitedly said, “Watch me make a rainbow!”

Dream It, Believe It!

Our kids got creative while dreaming about the things they want to do, learn, and see as they created their own vision boards! Along the way, we talked about trying new hobbies, practicing positivity, and using affirmations to build confidence and encourage ourselves and others. The kids filled their boards with goals and dreams that inspired them, and their words showed just how meaningful the activity was:

“I’m going to be more positive.” — Callan

“I’m going to hang this up in my room so I can see it every day.” — Audrey

“I want to learn how to roller-skate, so I’m going to put this picture of roller skates.” — Caydence

From big dreams to small goals, our kids were reminded that positive words, confidence, and believing in themselves can help turn ideas into action!

DREAM IT,
DO IT!
