HI MARIANA AND ARELYANNA

Hi, my name is Mariana, and I am 8 years old, and I'm going to talk about finger knitting. What I like about it is that it keeps me concentrated and focused, and I like doing it in a quiet area. Sometimes there's no yarn, so I've tried to do it with the plastic string, but I always get cuts from it.

Hi, my name is Arelyanna, and I'm 8. I want more yarn. I love finger knitting because I like making scarves for other people, and I learned it because my best friend Mariana taught me. She taught me how to wrap it around my finger and do the basics.

FORK FLIPPIN FUN!

One day, Armanii (5), said "I want to break something!"

Another kid immediately said, "Me too!" Sometimes you have to think really quickly in these moments, so we grabbed A LOT of plastic forks and took them outside.

We were breaking forks and using the table to help, when suddenly the kids realized they could use the table to launch forks through the air!

"Which fork went the farthest?" Tatum (6) asked after he sent 4 forks flying at the same time!

Jerry (6) told everyone, "This is the fork cannon, and it launches forks."

Other kids used the broken fork pieces in creative ways:

"I'm making it dominos and a God T."

Layla (8)

"I'm trying to make a Halloween vision."

Mateo (10)

"Armanii, can you help me break this fork to make arms out of the little pieces?" Celeste (5)

Then some kids noticed a problem! Clarke (7) said, "The forks are breaking so much! I can probably fix them."

Finally we grabbed some blue tape to fix the forks, and the activity continued the next day with even more surprises!

Stay tuned for our next Fork Flipping Fun story!

WE LOVE BOOKS!

At Osuna, based on the interests of the kids, we are exploring literacy and creative writing clubs. For the two clubs' first field trip, we visited a free neighborhood library box where we donated some of our old books and picked up some new ones. The kids were amazed by the old phone box being turned into a makeshift library and needed to take the chance for a photo shoot. Our next stop was to Page One books to complete our hunt for new additions to the CC library as well as the clubs' first books they will read together. On the way, I asked the kids what their favorite books to read were. Ariella (5) enthusiastically told me, "I love the paw patrol books!" Aniyah (5) then told me, "I love zombie books," which prompted Declan (6) to exclaim, "Wait! I love the Walking Dead!"

At the bookstore, each kid handpicked a book to add to our library, and Kira (8) told me, "I chose the Halloween book for the Kindies to have fun too! I'm excited to have fun and hopefully read about animals!" Declan was very happy to find Captain Underpants, and he excitedly told the group, "I love Captain Underpants! The kids will love it cause he can fly, he's good with kids, and he jumped out of a window!" After a successful trip of working together to decide on new books and a combined book for book club, we headed to the park for a nice, fun end to the day. We are very excited to see where the kids take the clubs next!
